

COVID-19 Workplace Response

With COVID-19 (Coronavirus) now affecting more than 100,000 people around the world, we're seeing greater numbers of employees working remotely from home.

To help your staff adapt swiftly and effectively to new working arrangements and policies, while minimising disruption to your business, you'll need to ensure they have the right information and support.

With current circumstances affecting businesses globally, online training is a very effective way to engage and educate employees across your organisation.

At GO1, we are committed to supporting you and your team during this time. As an online marketplace of training, we provide organisations with instant access to thousands of training resources, sourced from the best content providers in the world.

To help workplaces feel more prepared in their response to COVID-19, we are offering free access to these 5 online courses
